GENERAL PARISH NOTICES

Sunday 23rd April, DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Between 1931 and 1938 Sr. Faustina, a Polish nun, saw visions of Our Lord. He asked that the 1st Sunday after Easter (i.e. the 2nd Sunday of Easter) should be a Feast of Mercy, when the image of Jesus as seen by Sr. Faustina would be blessed and priests would preach about God's unfathomable mercy. Pope John Paul canonised Sr. Faustina on 30th April 2000 and decreed that the 2nd Sunday of Easter would henceforth be celebrated as Divine Mercy Sunday.

The Divine Mercy chaplet is said on ordinary Rosary beads. There are often Divine Mercy Services locally with a number of priests hearing confessions. I am not currently aware of local services but will try to find out and publish details in the Narthex.

We will have a short service here at St. Winefride's from 4.30-5.30pm. We will say the Divine Mercy Prayers and I will then be available for confession. If you know of a Divine Mercy Service you will be better going to it than coming here because I am a Divine Mercy novice. If you do know of another service please let me know and I will try to communicate it. Whatever happens I will still be available here from 4.30-5.30pm and will do my best.

Congratulations to Joseph Carty who on Easter Sunday will be presented with a Westminster Diocese Medal at the 11am Mass in the Church of Our Lady of Grace and St. Edward at Chiswick.

The presentation is in recognition of Joseph's work for Chiswick Parish and his other work in Westminster Diocese over many years.

As many of you will know, Joseph has been a parishioner here in St. Winefride's for over 40 years and I would like to take this opportunity to thank him on your behalf for all the work which he has done for us and in the Kew area in general.

Lenten Collections Thank you for your generosity. The total raised during Lent, including for CAFOD, was £4,686:

Faith Alive: £121.24
CAFOD: £665.95
Aid to the Church in Need: £524.30
SHOCC: £2,560
Santa Maria Education Fund: £815

Thank You for your Tremendous Response to SHOCC On behalf of the hundreds of children who will now be able to eat in spite of famine conditions in East Africa, I would like to say an enormous thank you for all your contributions. While envelopes are still coming in, the present total is an amazing £2,560 and every pound will go to a SHOCC-sponsored school. No overheads. Thank you. Asante sana. Thank you.
