NEXT WEEK IN THE PARISH

• Next Sunday 11th July – Collection for the Catholic Trust for England and Wales (see note below)

GENERAL PARISH NOTICES

Canon John is moving to pastures new...

Canon John has been appointed as Parish Priest for the large Parish of Purley and will be moving there during the summer. He will give up his current financial role at Archbishop House but he will continue as Episcopal Vicar for Finance, advising the Archbishop on financial matters.

Canon John has been a vital and much-liked member of our community and I am sure that you will all want to join me in wishing him well and thanking him for all that he has done for this parish for more than 10 years. He has been a good friend to me, giving me invaluable help, support and advice, not only by celebrating Mass most weekends, and enabling me to go away on holidays (pressing me to do so for my own good), but also by advising me in other ways and acting as a "sounding board". He has taken a full and active part in the Parish and has given talks to parishioners on a number of occasions. As a member of the Parish Co-ordinating Committee, his advice and suggestions have been of great value.

Although I shall miss him, as I am sure you will, I am very pleased for him as I know that he is looking forward to returning to full time pastoral ministry.

I hope that Canon John may still be able to concelebrate Mass with me on 8th July as we celebrate the anniversary of our ordinations.

Thank you John, we will keep you in our prayers.

Fr Tom

Easter Communion Next Sunday, Trinity Sunday, is the last day for fulfilling the precept of Easter Communion i.e. receiving Communion at least once a year during the Easter season unless prohibited from doing so by Church law. Anyone conscious of having committed a grave sin must receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation before going to Communion.

Catholic Trust for England and Wales The collection helps to support the legal, financial and charitable activities of the Bishop's Conference and helps to give the revenue necessary for the central administration of the Church in this country.

SVP Mass for the sick, Sunday 25th June The Society of St. Vincent de Paul will be arranging its annual Mass for the Sick at 3pm on Sunday 25 June here at St. Winefride's. All are welcome, especially those with any kind of ailment and those who would like to pray for sick relatives or friends. There will be refreshments afterwards in the church hall. If you need transport to or from the church for the Mass please contact Peter Nixon on 020-8876 0976".

Tree of Heaven The stump of this tree will be removed during the week.

Altar cloths & table cloths I would be grateful if someone, or a group of you could take on the responsibility for checking these regularly and laundering and replacing them as required

Celebration- save the date Mass on Saturday 8th July will be in celebration of Fr. Tom's 75th birthday and of the 20th anniversaries of Canon John and Fr. Tom's ordinations. We would like to mark these very special occasions for Father Tom and Canon John on the evening of Saturday 8th July by sharing a glass of wine and a slice of cake with them in the Church Hall following Mass. We hope that many members of the parish will be able to attend the Mass and to toast the celebrants afterwards. Please do save the date.
The Parish Coordinating Committee

Invitation to A Day of Reflection on 17th June at 9.30am – 3.30pm. Our Eucharistic ministers have been extremely fortunate in arranging for their annual day of reflection to be led by Dr Gemma Simmonds CJ. An invitation is now extended to other members of the parish who may wish to join in what promises to be an excellent day of input and spiritual reflection on Sacrament: Doing the Joined-up Living. Gemma is a religious sister, a member of the Congregation of Jesus. She is currently a lecturer in pastoral theology at Heythrop College, London University and travels the world as a speaker on Jesuit spirituality and as a retreat leader. She has been chaplain at the University of Cambridge and is Director of the Religious Life Institute. You may well have heard her on the radio. The day will be hosted at St Elizabeth's School, Queens Road, Richmond which offers space for contemplation. Father Tom will celebrate Mass there during the day. Tea & coffee will be provided and participants are asked to contribute to a 'bring and share' lunch. If you are interested in joining this special event or have any queries please contact Oona Stannard 07818 425199 oonastannard@gmail.com.
