Eileen Gregory

I am sorry to have to inform you that Eileen is moving out of the Parish next Wednesday (19th October), into a care home in Kingston.

Eileen has been in the Parish for over 40 years. She has been a reader with outstanding clarity. In my time here I have appreciated the fact that she has been a great supporter of Parish functions and of Churches Together in Kew.

Eileen intends to remain in contact with the Parish and to continue to see Parishioners. For those of her friends who would like to visit her, her contact details are: Coombe Hill Manor, 190-196 Coombe Lane West, Coombe, Kingston upon Thames KT2 7EQ. Tel: 020 3733 8141

We will miss having Eileen in the Parish and I hope that we will continue to see her frequently. Fr. Tom

Collection for Missio Missio (formerly the APF, Association for the Propagation of the Faith) is the Church's official organ for the support of the Foreign Missions. The collection taken on World Mission Sunday goes in its entirety to support churches, hospitals, schools and vocations in countries where the Church is new, young or poor. Missio works through local bishops, churches and missionary congregations to ensure that resources are distributed equitably and justly – on the basis of need. The money goes directly from England and Wales to the bishops in the mission territories.

Catholic Herald Please note that the price of this publication has gone up to £2.50.

The Rosary in October Those who recite 5 decades of the Rosary in church, or as a family, a religious community, or as a group of the faithful, may gain a plenary indulgence daily; in other circumstances a partial indulgence. A partial indulgence may be obtained daily by reciting the Litany of Loreto and the Prayer to Saint Joseph. There are some brief notes on indulgences in the Narthex for you to take if you wish.

Before each Mass, Jenny arranges a practice so that the children are familiar with their reading or prayer and with using the microphone. Ideally children should be in Year 2 or above. If your child would like to read at 9:30 Mass please contact Jenny Evans jennycevens@hotmail.com.
